

Phase 4: Hosting Singers (Optional, but Highly Impactful)

While we are fully capable of staying in hotels, host homes are one of the most meaningful ways a church can partner with us.

This part of the experience often becomes the most memorable—for both the singers and the families who host them.

Why Hosting Matters

Hosting:

- Creates opportunities for personal connection and ministry
- Often leads to lasting relationships
- Significantly reduces tour costs for our singers
- Provides a comfortable place to rest and recharge

It also naturally encourages engagement, as host families—and those connected to them—are more likely to attend and support the performance.

How Hosting Works

- Singers are organized in pairs (groups of 2) for both safety and simplicity
- Each home hosts a minimum of 2 singers
- Many families choose to host 4 or more, which is incredibly helpful
- Hosts will receive all boys or all girls (usually never mixed) (If you have a new idea that makes this work for your church please ask, we are flexible)

If your church would like help organizing host homes, we are more than happy to assist in that process.

What Singers Bring

Our singers come prepared with:

- Sleeping bag
- Pillow
- Toiletries

What Hosts Provide

Hosting is simple and does not require extensive preparation:

- A safe place to sleep - (A bed is not required—floor space is completely fine and anticipated)
- Access to a shower
- A simple breakfast

That's it.

After the Performance

- Singers will meet their host families at the church immediately following the performance
- They will leave with their assigned hosts for the evening

The Next Morning

- Hosts return singers to the church, typically around 8:00 AM
- If this timing is not convenient, we are happy to make alternate arrangements. We understand that families may have to head to their employment.

Additional Notes

- If laundry is offered, it is appreciated but never expected (Singers will handle their own laundry if needed)
- Our adult sponsors and drivers typically stay in a local hotel
- Emergency contact information will be provided as needed

Final Reminder Details

- Promotional materials for our performance (posters, videos, etc.) are available if helpful on our media resources tab on the website.
- You will also find an optional Host Home Sign Up Sheet on our website under our host us page.
- Occasionally, mail may be sent to the church for singers—please hold it until our arrival.
